Avoid the Risk of Road Crimes

- Be kind to fellow road users - keep your temper and don't retaliate.
- Be cautious when driving alone and avoid stopping in remote areas.
- Remain alert to the threat of criminal activity such as hijackings and smash-and-grab.
- Always place your valuables in the boot of your car.
- Don't leave valuables in open sight, unattended, or on the seat of a car.
- Limit nighttime driving.
