

Platinum Health Page

Going away for the holiday and need a DSP provider?

Platinum Health offers a DSP search tool on its website to help members find a range of DSP providers such as general practitioners, pharmacies, hospitals, dentists and optometrists. If you're going away for the holiday and need a DSP provider, visit our website (www.platinumhealth.co.za).

For a step-by-step guide on how to find a DSP,

Click here

HIV

How to navigate your relationship

Finding out that your partner has HIV can lead to a range of emotions, but it's important to know the facts about staying safe.

For more information on how to navigate your relationship,

Click here

MEN'S HEALTH AWARENESS

COLORECTAL CANCER

Colorectal or colon cancer is among the top three cancers for men in South Africa, with 1 in 77 males diagnosed according to the National Cancer Register (2019). If diagnosed early it can increase your chances of survival.

For more information about the signs and symptoms, lifestyle and genetic factors, screening as well as treatment and prognosis

Click here

Where to obtain CHRONIC MEDICATION?

Members who are registered on the Chronic Medication Programme can obtain their chronic medication from Platinum Health.

To find out where you can obtain your chronic medication and who you can call for assistance,

Click here

Who to call in case of an EMERGENCY?

Many members may be travelling over the coming school holidays and it's important to know who to call should you need emergency medical assistance or transport.

Click here

to find out who you should call for help.

